

Privacy Notice

This notice explains how the information we collect about you is used and your rights in relation to that information.

Personal information collected from you in order to register an event is required by law. The main legislation which governs the collection of registration information is the Births and Deaths Registration Act 1953, the Marriage Act 1949 and the Civil Partnership Act 2004. You may be legally obliged by these acts, and other pieces of legislation, to provide certain pieces of information. If you fail to provide information you are required to give us you may, amongst other things, be liable to a fine, or we may not be able to provide the service you are applying for, such as a marriage or a civil partnership.

Personal information may also be collected from you if you make an application to this office, for example for a certificate or to correct information contained in a register entry.

The information you provide will be held and processed by registration officers for this registration district.

The superintendent registrar is a data controller for birth, marriage and death registrations and can be contacted at:

Suffolk Register Office
Endeavour House
Russell Road
Ipswich
Suffolk
IP1 2BX

The local authority is a data controller for civil partnership registrations and the Data Protection Officer can be contacted at:

Information Governance Team
Endeavour House

The Registrar General for England and Wales is a joint data controller for birth, marriage, death and civil partnership registrations and can be contacted at:

General Register Office
Trafalgar Road
Southport
PR8 2HH

A copy of any register entry will be provided by this office in accordance with the law to any applicant, provided they supply enough information to identify the entry concerned and pay the appropriate fee. The copy may only be issued in the form of a paper certified copy (a “certificate”). An application for a certificate may also be made to the General Register Office.

Indexes for events registered at this office are publicly available in order to help members of the public identify the registration record they might need. Indexes are available in writing.

A copy of the information collected by a registration officer will also be sent to the Registrar General for England and Wales so that a central record of all registrations can be maintained.

Registration information held at this office may be shared with other organisations in the course of carrying out our functions, or to enable others to perform theirs.

We will only share information where there is a lawful basis to do so for the following reasons:

1. Statistical or research purposes
2. Administrative purposes by official bodies e.g. ensuring their records are up-to-date in order to provide services to the public
3. Fraud prevention or detection, immigration and passport purposes

Section 19AA of the Registration Service Act permits sharing of data between public bodies where a data sharing agreement has been approved and signed by both parties, and, if more than 1,000 records are to be shared, additional approval is required by the Registrar General.

Suffolk Registration shares the following data under this provision:-

1. National register log 2613 – sharing of death registration data with Suffolk County Council Blue Badge, Adult Care Services, Children’s Services, Trading Standards & Finance teams.
2. National register log 141– sharing of death registration data with Housing & Benefit teams at Suffolk District & Borough Councils.

Further information on data held by the registration service and a full list of the organisations with whom registration data is shared, the purpose and the lawful basis for sharing the data can be found at www.suffolk.gov.uk/registrars Alternatively, staff at this office will be able to provide the information.

You have the right to request access to the personal information we hold about you, to be informed about the collection and use of your personal information, for incorrect information to be corrected (where the law permits) and to request us to restrict the processing of your personal information. In certain circumstances you have the right to object to the processing of your personal information. Your information will not be subjected to automated decision-making.

Registration information is retained indefinitely as required by law. Information collected during the booking of appointments and ceremonies and for certificate orders is retained for 2 years.

Please see Annex A at the bottom of this notice which includes the list of processing activities for Registrars, Superintendent Registrars and Registration Authorities.

The Suffolk Registration Service is part of Suffolk County Council. You will find the Privacy Policy for Suffolk County Council available online at: <https://www.suffolk.gov.uk/about/privacy-notice/>

If you have any questions or concerns about the collection, use or disclosure of your personal information please contact The Superintendent Registrar, Suffolk Register Office, Endeavour House, Russell Road, Ipswich, Suffolk IP1 2BX

You have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office about the way we are handling your personal information. Details on how you can do this can be found at <https://ico.org.uk/>
